C Description of Alleged Incident
During his first bowling spell, Preston and Jameson had exchanged views on their cricketing abilities. Preston said “You're not the player you once was” “You're a one season wonder”. Jameson replied “Like you would know about that”. At 6.20pm when Preston started his second bowling spell the argument re-commence between Preston and Jameson. It was suggested by Jameson that Preston “Still needed his mother to look after him” to which Preston replied “You were son of a bitch!”; both comments were heard by umpire Gilligan. This was the tipping point and tempers boiled over. Jameson threw his helmet to the ground and advanced towards Preston in a threatening manner – both umpires, both captains and the other batsman Tom Blunt intervened to restore order – eventually the game continued. The captain of Hoy Wanderers had left before we could tell him of this report.
